The Company is in the business of rent a car. In its quest for expanding its business operations and maximizing the returns for its shareholders, the Company is examining various options and alternatives to fulfill its ambitious growth plans. The Company may have to buy more cars and start more offices to expand its business. For the same the company needs to borrow funds. As the proposed borrowings may exceed the limits laid down under Section 180(1)(c) of the Companies Act, 2013, the approval of the members would be required for the proposed borrowing limit upto and not exceeding Rs.30 Crores including the money already borrowed by the Company.

The existing Articles of Association("AOA") of the Company are based on the Companies Act,1956 and several regulations in the existing AOA contain references to specific sections of the Companies Act, 1956 and some regulations in the extant AOA are no longer in conformity with the Companies Act,2013("the Act")

With the coming into force of the Act (barring a few provisions which are yet to be notified), several regulations of the extant AOA of the Company require alterations/modifications or deletions. Hence, it is considered prudent to replace the extant AOA completely with a new set of regulations.

Following are the salient features of the changes made in the new draft of AOA of the Company:

- Existing AOA have been streamlined and aligned with the Act
- The statutory provisions of the Act which permit a company to do some acts "if so authorized by its Articles" or provisions which require a company to do acts in a prescribed manner "unless the Articles otherwise provide" have been specifically included; and
- Provisions of the existing AOA which are already part of the statute have not been reproduced in the new draft AOA as they would only lead to duplication-their non inclusion makes the new AOA crisp, concise and clear and aids ease of reading and understanding.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 14 of the Companies Act, 2013 an amendment of the AOA required the approval of the members by way of special resolution. Accordingly, consent of the members is sought for approving the special resolution set out at item no 8 of the notice. Copies of the existing and new AOA of the Company are available for inspection at the Registered Office of the Company during the business hours on any working day upto the Annual General Meeting.
